CHRISTIAN AID WEEK 2019 Sunday 12 – Saturday 18 May

The theme this year is 'all mums should live' with a focus on the safety of mothers during pregnancy and childbirth, especially in Sierra Leone where the Ebola virus took such a toll during 2013-16

There are now lists to sign up to help to man/person the stall in Templars Square 2:00 – 4:00 on Sunday afternoon, 12 May and each weekday afternoon; 10:00-4:00 Saturday 18 May : of course, this unfortunately clashes with the plant sale so we hope we can stretch our person power.

Please try to give us an hour or two during the week – there will be a tombola, ongoing competitions – flowerpot marbles and bagatelle, balloons and buckets

COACH DAY TRIPS Our enthusiastic Parish Travel Secretary Pat Chambers thinks we would enjoy some of the day trips offered by McCallum Holidays Ltd., run by Gordon McCallum, our Parish holiday coach driver, and his wife, Nicole There's a list of the varied advertised programme through May – June – July with prices on display at St James Centre and at St Francis . We can either

- (1) join other people booking on any of those &/or
- (2) if we can guarantee to fill a coach, arrange our own day(s)

We will start by inviting you to sign up to say which of the 7 places you would particularly like to visit and Pat will take it from there – families and friends will of course be welcome

VACANCY : TEMPORARY PARISH CLEANER Our excellent cleaner Nico will be away from 11 June – 29 July. We would like to employ (at the Oxford living wage rate £10.02 an hour) a temporary replacement

Nico works 4h a week at St Francis and around 8h but variable at St James Centre but these can of course be divided between two people. Obviously the work is quite heavy, involving cleaning the floors and the toilets in both places

DIOCESE OF OXFORD CONFERENCE

We pray for Oxford Diocesan conference next week. Around 120 people will gather at High Leigh : Bishop's Council and Bishop's Staff with representatives from the deaneries to plan the next stage of our common vision process. They will be exploring together how to encourage local renewal in mission as we all seek to be a more Christ-like Church for the sake of God's world. The title of the conference is "Into deep water", taken from the keynote passage, Luke 5 1-11 – Jesus calls his first fishermen disciples

God of love, the sea is so great and our boat is so small.
Inspire your church as we put out into deep water;
help us to be contemplative, compassionate and courageous in your mission.
Guide us by your Spirit to discover where you are working;
help us to join in the building of your kingdom and anoint us afresh to make disciples of all ages in your name for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ who calls us and sends us with you and the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever. AMEN

Today we complete our Lenten/Easter focus on the Beatitudes

THE GOSPEL OF MATTHEW chapter 5, verses 1-10

Now when Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, ²and he began to teach them. He said:

- ³ Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
- ⁴ Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
- ⁵ Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
- ⁶ Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.
- ⁷ Blessed are the merciful for they will be shown mercy.
- ⁸ Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
- ⁹ Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called children of god.
- ¹⁰ Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven
